

Help us save Seaton Delaval Hall

Photo: © Shaun Crawford

One of Sir John Vanbrugh's most magnificent buildings, 450 acres of gardens and parkland, and 1,000 years of English history – Seaton Delaval Hall is the pride of the North East. This inspiring property offers thrilling possibilities for the future, but all of this could be lost forever unless we raise £6.3 million. Please help us save this wonderful estate for the nation.

To donate now visit

www.nationaltrust.org.uk/seatondelaval

SAVE SEATON DELAVAL
HALL APPEAL

Please note: If the National Trust is unable to acquire Seaton Delaval Hall, any monies raised by this event / activity will go to National Trust projects in the North East. If you would want your donation to be returned, please tell the event co-ordinator. The National Trust is a Registered Charity No. 205846

The Journal 