

THE NATIONAL TRUST

Southport and Formby Association

Twice a year we publish our own booklet with a list of forthcoming events and other news. From September through to April each year we meet on the second Tuesday of each month at The Royal Clifton Hotel in Southport at either 7.45 pm in the evening or 2.15pm in the afternoon - times are advised in the booklet. We have a lecture or talk on various interesting topics, and not necessarily anything to do with The National Trust, but all very enjoyable.

The cost of joining is a refreshingly reasonable £7 per year, and includes the cost of all lectures and the booklet. If you are not sure this is for you why not come along one evening as our guest, we are sure you will find it interesting and worth the effort.

Contact any member or ring our membership secretary John Alderman on 01704 876175, we look forward to hearing from you.

Here is our programme of forthcoming events – we hope it will encourage you to join us.
