The National Trust

for Places of Historic Interest or Natural Beauty

Byelaws

Made by the National Trust for Places of Historic Interest or Natural Beauty in pursuance of the powers vested in the National Trust by the National Trust Act 1907 and the National Trust Act (Northern Ireland) 1946 with respect to land in Northern Ireland held for the benefit of the nation.

Definitions

1. In the construction of these Byelaws "the National Trust" means the National Trust for Places of Historic Interest or Natural Beauty incorporated by the National Trust Act 1907.

"Trust Property" means all land and water in Northern Ireland including estuaries, foreshores, lakes, ponds, rivers, streams, canals and other land covered by water, and buildings for the time being held by the National Trust for the benefit of the nation.

"Trust Buildings" means any building upon Trust Property which is for the time being open to the Public whether on payment or not.

"Trust Officer" means any person appointed and authorised in writing by the National Trust to enforce its byelaws or any of them.

"Unauthorised person" means any person except:

(a) Any person for the time being duly authorised by the National Trust in writing for any purpose in connection with the management, maintenance or regulation of Trust Property;

(b) A person acting in the legal exercise of some right in over or affecting Trust Property;

(c) A person duly authorised by a person entitled so to act as aforesaid; or

(d) A person who is in possession of a valid permit, issued by the Secretary or other person authorised by the National Trust Committee for Northern Ireland.

Soil and Vegetation

2. (a) No unauthorised person shall dig, cut or take turf, sods, gravel, sand, clay or any other substance on or from Trust Property.

(b) No unauthorised person shall dig up or remove, cut, fell, pluck or injure any flowers, plants, fungi, moss, ferns, shrubs, trees or other vegetation growing on Trust Property or remove any seeds thereof or injure any grass or climb any tree.

(c) No unauthorised person shall knowingly bring and leave on or in or knowingly permit to be brought onto and left on or in Trust Property any form of living vegetation in such circumstances that the same would be likely to reproduce or propagate itself.

Fire

3. (a) No unauthorised person shall on Trust Property light any fire or discharge any fire-work.

(b) No person shall on Trust Property place, throw or let fall any lighted match, cigarette or any inflammable gas, spirit, substance or thing, or any bottle or broken glass so as to cause or be likely to cause damage by fire to Trust Property or to any object or vegetation thereon.

Firearms and Other Weapons

4. (a) No unauthorised person shall have in his possession while he is on any part of Trust Property other than any part thereof which is a public right-of-way any firearm or explosive substance.

In this Byelaw the expression "firearm" means any lethal barrelled weapon of any description from which any shot, bullet or other missile can be discharged.

(b) No unauthorised person shall throw or discharge any missile, stone, boomerang, or explosive or use any lasso, knife, spear or other weapon to the danger or annoyance of any person or animal on Trust Property.

(c) No unauthorised person shall use any chemical or other substance likely to cause damage or injury to Trust Property or animal or plant life thereon.

Litter and Rubbish

5. (a) No unauthorised person shall bring rubbish, scrap or waste materials onto Trust Property for the purpose of abandoning or disposing of the same whether in the litter bins provided by the National Trust or otherwise.

(b) No person shall leave or abandon on Trust Property except in receptacles provided for the purpose any litter, refuse, waste materials or offensive matter including (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) any metal, rubber, wooden or plastic articles and containers, bottles, paper, glass, china, dead animals, scrap, rubble and road-mending materials.

Note: An extract from the Litter Act (Northern Ireland) 1960 is set out at the end of these Byelaws.

Malicious Damage

6. No person shall deface by writing or other marks any tree or rock on Trust Property or any building or other structure or any fixed or movable equipment set up, placed or maintained by the National Trust thereon.

Note : See note on Malicious Damage at the end of these Byelaws.

Advertisements

7. No unauthorised person shall post, paint, display or distribute any bill, placard, advertisement or notice on Trust Property.

Dogs and Other Animals

8. No unauthorised person shall cause or allow any dog or other animal belonging to him or in his charge:

(a) To enter any part of Trust Property to which the Public are not granted access;

(b) To enter any Trust Property to which Public access is had by payment unless a notice permitting such entry is exhibited at the entrance; or

(c) To enter or remain on any Trust Property to which entry is allowed unless such dog or other animal is under proper control and is effectually restrained from causing damage to property including plants and from injuring, annoying or disturbing any person, bird or animal.

Protection of Animals

9. (a) No unauthorised person shall on Trust Property knowingly take, molest or wilfully disturb, injure or destroy any living creature or the eggs of any living creature or spread or use any net or set or use any snare or other engine, instrument, lamp, lure or other means for the taking, injury, or destruction of any such living creature or its eggs whether in on or above Trust Property.

(b) No unauthorised person shall knowingly bring and leave on or in or knowingly permit to be brought onto and left on or in Trust Property any living creature in such circumstances that the same would be likely to reproduce or propagate itself or cause damage to Trust Property or plant or animal life thereon.

Bathing and Skating

10. (a) No person shall bathe or skate on Trust Property or use Trust Property for bathing or skating in or on any lake, pond, river, stream or canal adjacent thereto where such bathing or skating is for the time being prohibited by authorised notices exhibited on Trust Property.

(b) No unauthorised person shall water-ski on Trust Property nor use Trust Property for water-skiing in or on any lake, pond, river or canal adjacent thereto.

(c) No person shall skate on rollers in any car park on Trust Property or on any road owned by the National Trust and on which vehicular traffic is permitted by the National Trust.

Driving, Parking and Mooring of Conveyances

11. (a) No unauthorised person shall:

(i) Moor, park or leave on Trust Property any conveyance except in mooring sites or parking places provided by the National Trust;

(ii) Leave any conveyance between sunset and sunrise in any parking place on Trust Property;

(iii) Ride, drive, navigate or propel any conveyance over or upon Trust Property otherwise than upon roads, tracks and waterways authorised for the use of such conveyance; or

(iv) Use any part of Trust Property in connection with any race, hill climb, rally, regatta or other similar function involving the use of any conveyance.

(b) No person shall ride or drive any conveyance to the danger or annoyance of or without due consideration for other persons resorting to Trust Property.

Note: In this Byelaw "conveyance" includes any air, land or water-craft vehicle or machine other than wheelchairs and perambulators. Sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a) shall have no application to pedal cycles.

Horse-riding

12. (a) No unauthorised person shall ride a horse on any part of Trust Property where horse-riding is prohibited by an authorised notice or where horse-riding is likely to result in damage to Trust Property whether prohibited by notice or not.

(b) No person shall ride a horse to the danger or annoyance of or without due consideration for other persons resorting to Trust Property.
