Don't miss

Something for all seasons

Wherever possible, the original working kitchen garden provides seasonal produce for our restaurant and continues the Lyles' vision of self-sufficiency.

Dining with the Lyles

Morning coffee, afternoon tea and light lunches available in Strode dining and tea rooms. Child-friendly menus available.

Visiting the artisan workshops

Traditional crafts and gifts available from the independently run artisan workshops. Opening times vary. Check website for details.

Being active

Our Great Outdoors Guide will enable you to discover more during your visit. Tennis Court available – rackets and balls can be borrowed from reception.

The Estate
The Lyle family bought land around the house to create a new estate.

Gardens
The intimate family garden is laid out in a series of rooms, inspired by Gertrude Jekyll's plans.

The Houses (Court & Strode)
The Lyles combined a house of the 1550s with the stable block of 1674 to make one house.

Kitchen Garden
This is a working gem providing fresh fruit and veg, for our restaurant.
